2026 CAWV SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAM INSTRUCTION SHEET

All applications must be received by the Contractors Association of West Virginia (CAWV), 2114 Kanawha Boulevard, East, Charleston, West Virginia 25311 no later than March 9, 2026.

- I. Cover Letter: Each applicant must include a cover letter with their application packet. This letter should introduce the applicant and explain their reasons for applying, professional goals, involvement in extracurricular activities, and reasons why they feel they would be deserving of the CAWV Scholarship. Mail this letter to the CAWV.
- II. Application Form: This application is to be completed, signed and dated. Add additional sheets as necessary if sufficient space is not provided. Mail this Application to CAWV.
- III. Transcript: Each applicant must submit a transcript with their application packet to determine initial academic eligibility for the scholarship. Unofficial transcripts are accepted to complete the application; however, if you are selected as a finalist and are scheduled for an interview, you must be prepared to provide your official transcripts. A sealed official transcript of your college record may be brought to your interview – or mailed to the Contractors Association of West Virginia, 2114 Kanawha Boulevard, East, Charleston, West Virginia 25311.
- IV. Letter of Recommendation: Each applicant shall provide a letter from a faculty member recommending the student for the CAWV Scholarship. This letter should be kept confidential in a sealed envelope addressed to CAWV and included inside the applicant's package. Mail this letter of recommendation to CAWV.

Applicants will be judged on academic performance, desire to work in the construction industry, work experience, financial need and extracurricular activities. Applicants must be a West Virginia resident and must be a sophomore, junior, or senior enrolled in a civil engineering or a construction-related four (4) year degree program in a West Virginia college or university or attending an out-of-state school offering a construction-related curriculum not available in West Virginia. All applicants will be reviewed, and finalists will be interviewed by CAWV representatives.

All applications must be received by the Contractors Association of West Virginia no later than March 9, 2026.
